

Survey Section: Organization (Higher Education)

The Organization tab contains 4 questions about the scope of service learning at your higher education institution.

The screenshot shows a survey interface with a progress bar at the top containing 12 tabs: Survey Progress, 1. Organization, 2. Funding, 3. Participants, 4. Beneficiaries, 5. Program Duration, 6. Activities, 7. Partners, 8. Institutional Support, 9. Coordinator, 10. Description, 11. Training, and 12. Tech Assistance (optional). The '1. Organization' tab is selected. Below the progress bar are navigation buttons: '<< Prev', 'Save', and 'Next >>'. The main content area is titled 'Organization - Specific Questions' and includes a warning: 'The following questions are about your institution/organization. Be sure to save the report periodically (after every few questions) as you fill it out so you don't lose data.' Question 1 asks for the total number of students in the institution. Question 2 is a grid of checkboxes for the scope of service-learning activities. Question 3 asks if there are service-learning requirements for students. Question 4 asks for details of service-learning requirements. At the bottom of the form are navigation buttons: '<< Prev', 'Save', and 'Next >>'. The footer contains 'Contact Us | Download Surveys | Online Help | Privacy Policy' and a 'LEARN AND SERVE' logo.

Callout boxes provide the following explanations:

- Question 1: The first question asks about the number of students at your college or university as a whole (not just those in the service-learning program).
- Questions 2-4: Questions 2-4 ask you to describe the scope of service-learning activities at your institution and whether your institution has a service-learning requirement of any kind.
- Questions 3-4: These questions refer to all service-learning activities, including those not funded by this Learn and Serve America grant.
